

Coloured Pencil Tools and Techniques

Coloured pencils are made differently by different companies and can have different qualities. One brand name that was mentioned as good quality was _____.

Besides the coloured pencils themselves, some of the other tools that were mentioned in the “basic tools” video were _____, _____, _____, _____.

Layering your colours means _____.

Heavy colour should be built up in _____.

Instead of using black, one of the artists recommended using these two colours to create a richer effect. Make black by using _____ and _____.

In the video on basic tools, the artist recommended some colours which can be layered and blended to create skin tones. Some of the colours she recommended were _____.

You can blend or burnish your layers of colour using a colourless blender stick or a _____ coloured pencil.

In the videos demonstrating colouring techniques, the artist recommended that you outline your image but to make the outline as one of the last steps in the process because _____.

More than once, the artist advised that you take your time, because _____.

The component or ingredient in coloured pencils that makes them blendable is _____.